Bootstrap 3 modal
not working on ng-
view I have an

AngularJS application with a master view that contains a list of items and the details of an item. Each item is clickable which loads the details of the item in a modal (notified via a button), using $uibModal. My items are generated in a ng-repeat, and each ng-repeat is inside ng-view. My modal loads correctly when the modal button is clicked, but when the details are loaded in the modal it doesn't work correctly - it tries to open a new

modal rather than
use the one that is already loaded. In my detail view I have
