It is not displaying anything on the front page. The views I have created does not appear in the screen. Can anyone tell me why is this happening? A: I am not sure what you mean by View is not displayed in front-end of site, but may this could help. Adding the field Content Type and then selecting your content type and your view field from the Views display (in the Views settings, the CTA) This is the main thing that cause that other Fields are not displayed with field_view(). Hope I could help. A double crossover event can be observed when a dicentric chromosome traverses the airway epithelium of mouse lungs. Many factors contribute to the etiology of intrathoracic airway obstruction and emphysema in which abnormal injury, repair, and remodeling of lung tissue are common. Among these, dicentric chromosomes may be generated in vivo by chromosome missegregation at the first and second meiotic divisions and can have a detrimental effect on chromosome segregation and lead to aneuploidy and apoptosis. In the present study, we examined the incidence of dicentric chromosomes in the lungs of C3H/HeN mice using two different approaches. First, we looked for the presence of dicentric chromosomes in mice at the age of 1 week and 2 years. Our results showed the presence of these abnormalities, but no significant increase in their incidence was observed during aging in these mice. Second, we performed a double crossover event during cell division with
