In the post apocalyptic world only the strong survive. One of those strong men, Commander "The Conductor" is about to discover the most peaceful planet of this world, but on it there is only water. Only!? Yes, only water. The planet is paradise and all that is needed is water to make it liveable, no other resources needed. But Commander "The Conductor" wants the biggest trade, at least as big as that the guy from the city promised. But first he must pay for it, since the market is full of scumbags.

Luckily he is not alone, he is accompanied by his trusty robot assistant "Igor" and a police drone named "Sergei". They will prove to be very handy in this paradise since the water is constantly moving. You can follow it yourself with the Android App. - Play in one of seven terrains - Dynamic, water driven, terrain - Action game, where you dig and transport the water - Try to become the richest player, if you like competition you can submit your scores into the leaderboard. - Tutorial to help you get the hang of it and a short tutorial in Gameplay. - More than 500 lines of german naturalistic dialogue. - Sounds and music arranged on a tropical island - Terrain is limited to what the average GPU can handle - Game play is about creating a road through the terrain for your tanker Please take a look and leave a comment if you would like to contribute to this project. I would love to add your music and picture, if you are willing to share them. Any questions just write a comment. Play on any of the 45 maps. Don't look for the circle. It is just a showcase that the map has enough going on. I don't intend to make this multiplayer if there is interest. I tried it with friends who would play but it was a disaster. To avoid disappointment, please understand this game is mostly about
