From rubber duckies to "Make America Great Again," here are some of the strangest things Donald Trump has brought into his campaign. Donald Trump has taken a lot of criticism for being a racist and a bully. Even worse, he has made statements that have come off as sexist, homophobic and, well, downright strange. The Republican presidential candidate has also been bringing strange things into his rallies, particularly the ones that are supposed to be campaign stops. For instance, in the video below, Trump can be seen bringing a mannequin head for Carly Fiorina to give to a young girl. The video was first posted on Reddit's r/The_Donald subreddit on October 22, but was brought to light again thanks to actor and comedian Stephen Colbert. Fiorina later spoke with the Huffington Post about the incident, saying she did not know what the head was for, and that it wasn't her idea. Last month, Trump brought the heart-shaped bath bombs to Florida's debate. The idea was to highlight Trump's plan to prevent child sex-trafficking. "This is a realistic way for me to have a conversation in a way that's more fun," Trump said to the debate moderators. But despite the fact that they were clearly intended to mock Hillary Clinton and her bad marriage history, many took the surrogates as a serious proposal. "Feminism is forcing women to be lesbians," wrote one Twitter user. "This is a good idea. Help women realize that they are not victims," wrote another. "The only reason it's sexy is the fact that it's taking so long for him to propose it," wrote a third. Trump's proposals to bring out

It is recommended that you install the program and run it for a good time period and protect the PC from all security threats and keep all passwords intact and it will be a lot of peace of mind for you to know that nobody else has access to your computer system. The program is smart enough to remove the codes for Bitlocker, Windows Password, and a lot more. When you have Bitlocker codes locked, you need to erase the BitLocker drive so that you can unlock it. The system will ask for a Windows Password and you have to enter a correct one so that you can get access to your system. Here, you can get a professional PC Unlocker that supports Windows 8, 7, Windows Vista, Windows XP, Windows ME, Windows 98, or even Windows 2000. The program is able to provide you with the right password. You can also acquire a Windows Password Recovery Tool which is able to access all the hidden keys and delete those away. Using this is not something that you want to do but in case that you are not able to remove the codes, then you can always access the program. Most of the users are complaining about the program because they are unable to download the program. You will need to be online for this, and it will cost you a lot of money since the program is so popular. If you wish to download the program for free, then you need to buy a license key from one of the sellers that offers this service, but it will only cost you a little bit of money. You can get these programs for free for a limited time but it is up to you to decide. If you want to buy the program, then it will be well worth it.
